THANK YOU!

One year ago today God called one of his very special children home from this world, Buddy Taylor. At this point in my life I felt my world had come tumbling down BUT I knew God would not let this happen. By God's loving arms around me and for all the love shown from my Pastors and my KBC church family, I have survived this year! On days when I feel down, it seems I receive a "thinking of you card", or a phone call or run into someone that would say, "You are in my prayers everyday". I just want to say "thank you" to everyone and please, even though one year has passed, keep me in your prayers!
Nancy Taylor
